February 11, 2025 • ICOC Minister Wellness Committee

It's not a secret that ministry work can be challenging. But it's often worse than that: paid ministry has the unique potential of being used by Satan to wound our hearts before God. High expectations, demanding members, lack of role clarity, fuzzy boundaries...

October 22-24, 2025

February 19, 2025 • ICOC Global Missions Service Team

The Global Missions Service Team (GMST) is a group of men and women representing the 12 different mission societies in our fellowship. These groups range in size and finances overseen, but are all committed to the same goal – telling the world about Jesus, the greatest news there has ever been.

The GMST meets each month to discuss best practices for boards; communications through the All Nations App and social media; and vision and dreaming for how to best impact all the world for God's glory.

Our signature worldwide effort in 2024 was the "Eyes That See" campaign, a May month of missions hosted worldwide. In a short period of time, approximately 18,000 people signed up for the All Nations App. This was used daily in May to show inspirational videos from around the globe. Disciples were called to pray ("plead"), share with others ("seed") and give ("need") during this special month and ongoing. Another "Eyes That See" is planned for May 2025.

There are plans in place to host all of the board members from the mission societies around the globe on a Zoom call this year, with hopes to have an in person meeting in 2026. We believe that we are better together – exchanging ideas, praying for one another and building the best way possible side by side.
