

Week 2: See the Needs

- Highlighting challenges being endured by our brothers and sisters.
- Please pray this week for disciples in humanitarian, material, financial or spiritual need.

Week 3: See the Miracles

- Inspiring reminders of God’s power being displayed among us.
- Please pray this week for God’s miraculous power and the presence of the Spirit to be felt more deeply today in our churches.

Week 4: See the Future

- A spotlight on the youth and ways that the next generation is rising up.
- Please pray this week for the continual passing down of inspiration and investment from one generation to the next.

We will also be raising $5,000 for each missions society for a specific featured need. Should you feel so moved, you can donate to a missions society’s need directly on the All Nations App. This is intended to be independent of your special missions contribution which we encourage you to give generously towards so God’s great work can continue all over the world. Much like Paul needed the support of the church in Philippi (Philippians 4:15-18) and others, our missionaries and churches today benefit tremendously from your sacrificial generosity.

God is working all over our church family and he wants to inspire us to partner with him in how he’s moving in the world today. Sometimes it takes stepping back and broadening your perspective to see God more clearly. Join us on the All Nations App as we all strive to develop Eyes That See!

> Happiness that Lasts

April 15, 2025 • Christian Ray Flores – Austin, TX, USA

Some truths take centuries for science to catch up to Scripture. One of those truths is this: Happiness doesn’t follow success. It precedes it. Top researchers like Dr. Raj Raghunathan and Tal Ben-Shahar, both of whom I’ve had the privilege to interview, have shown...

April 28, 2025 • Global Missions Service Team

May is right around the corner, so it’s almost time for our second annual Month of Missions! The Global Missions Service Team invites you to participate with us this year.

Imagine for a moment that you had the opportunity to visit more than 30 of our churches in as many countries on all six inhabited continents. What would such an experience do for your faith? How would it shape your perspective? What kind of devotion to the brotherhood would it inspire in you? Our prayer is that the Eyes That See campaign will give you a little taste of that very experience wherever you are...and for free!

Here’s a quick explanation of what’s to come:

This year’s Month of Missions will walk us through four themed weeks of stories from around the globe:

Week 1: See the Mission

- Stories of evangelistic impact and the winning of souls worldwide.
- Please pray this week for workers in the harvest field and greater evangelistic victory in our churches.
