general session. There will also be opportunities to network and participate in roundtable discussions on both dates.

With your registration, you can choose the attendance option that works best for you. InsideOut will take place both online and in-person in St. Louis, MO, on Friday, October 24th, and Saturday, October 25th. We know that many of you are looking forward to the opportunity to meet face-to-face with your peers!

Answers to questions you might have:

• How do I register? Go to our website: <https://insideoutccc.com>

• Is there a price difference if I register for in-person attendance? No! Just like in years past, the ticket type is determined by the type of registration, not by how you choose to attend.

• Professional Registration? General Registration? What's the difference? How do I know which one is right for me? You can find details about each registration type, the pricing, and donation options for attendees in need on our conference registration page.

July 11, 2025 • Kathy Rosario – St. Louis, MO, USA

The seventh annual Christian Counseling Conference will take place October 24th and 25th, 2025 in St. Louis, Missouri. Once again, we will have both in-person and online attendance options! All are welcome to join us.

Go to: www.insideoutccc.com to register for InsideOut2025 now.

Who should attend? This conference is for all members, leaders, and clinicians. We've designed three distinct tracks to serve a wide range of attendees:

- Professional/Clinician – with the option to earn CE credits.
- Ministry – For those in church leadership or on ministry staff
- General – For any church member seeking to learn more about mental health

Our theme this year is "Carrying Each Other's Burdens: Mental Health in Our Families and the Family of God." Every attendee will leave with practical tools they can implement immediately. Due to the professional nature of this event, childcare will not be provided.

The InsideOut schedule will remain the same. Like in years past, Friday will be a full day of classes for mental health professionals, with opportunities to earn Continuing Education (CE) credits at all sessions. Our opening general session, which is open to all, will also take place on Friday evening. Saturday will kick off with a morning general session, followed by three breakout sessions, each for three different tracks. We will close on Saturday evening with our final
