

Now in its eighth year, the conference offers tracks for:

- Licensed professional mental health clinicians
- Ministry leaders, lay leaders, and recovery group facilitators
- Church members who want to grow in compassion and skill

Whether you join us in person in St. Louis or participate online, you'll benefit from two days of connection, biblical teaching, and practical training. You'll also have opportunities to engage in open networking sessions, where you can connect with others who share similar experiences and interests.

Meet our speakers!

We are honored to introduce the distinguished speakers joining us for this year's conference. Our lineup features:

- Keynote speaker Wade Cook, LPC
- Keynote speaker Kyle Spears, LMFT
- Keynote speaker Melissa Abello, LPC

- Breakout speaker Ellen Radcliff, LMFT
- Breakout speaker Rhoda Agerbak, MBACP
- Breakout speakers Dr. John and Karen Louis
- Breakout speaker Dr. Phil Sarpong
- Breakout speaker Dr. Jennifer Konzen

And many more! View our full speaker lineup and class details on our website.

Early registration is open now and is only $50 for general admission (through Sunday, September 21). A professional registration option is also available for clinicians and those wanting to earn CE's with their conference attendance.

Hope to see you there!

We are excited to announce this year's InsideOut Christian Counseling Conference on October 24–25, 2025. Early registration starts at only $50 and ends on Sunday, September 21st.

Visit the website and register now at www.insideoutccc.com.

This year's theme, "Carrying Each Other's Burdens: Mental Health in Our Families and the Family of God," draws from Galatians 6:2: "Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ."

Mental health challenges impact not only individuals but also families, churches, and communities. As followers of Christ, we are called to bear one another's burdens, yet many of us feel unequipped to walk alongside those in pain. Whether you're a clinician, a ministry leader, or simply someone who cares deeply about the emotional and spiritual well-being of those around you, this conference provides a space to grow in both compassion and practical skills.
