October 17, 2026 • Dr. Robert Morris Carrillo – Madrid, Spain

For more than 1,000 years, Christian pilgrims have walked the Camino de Santiago as a sacred journey of faith and discovery. Last year, 90 disciples from around the world walked the Camino's French Way together. In 2027, we will gather again—disciples, family members, and those exploring faith—to walk the Portuguese Coastal Route, October 2–9, from beautiful Baiona to historic Santiago de Compostela.

Whether you are seeking spiritual renewal, meaningful friendships, or space to listen for God, you are welcome. Some will walk together; others will enjoy moments of solitude. Each pilgrim is encouraged to walk at their own pace and make the journey their own. We
